

1/23/06

ESTABLISHMENT OPERATION OF THE BAD RIVER TRIBE POLICE COMMISSION

SECTION 1001.1

PURPOSE: The purpose behind the creation of a Tribal Police Commission is to provide oversight of tribal police operations, approve policy and procedure, assist in the tribal budgeting process where necessary, and provide direction for the police force. The safety and security of the Bad River Tribe requires a full time professional police force to operate on reservation with the cooperation of the membership, local community, Tribal leadership, state, county and neighboring communities. Effective oversight and communication concerning all aspects of the police force operations is essential. It is critical that day to day operations be kept separate and distinct from the oversight of the operation of the police department and that the interjection of political influences be kept out of the operation of the tribal police force.

SECTION 1001.2

SCOPE: This ordinance is applicable to Bad River Tribal Police Commission as it relates to the oversight responsibility of the Bad River Police Department.

SECTION 1001.3

AUTHORITY: This ordinance is enacted pursuant to Article VI, Section 1(m) and (q) of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Bad River Band of the Lake Superior Tribe of Chippewa Indians.

SECTION 1001.4

SEVERABILITY: If any portion of this ordinance is found to be invalid for any reason, the remaining portions of this ordinance shall remain in effect.

SECTION 1001.5

ESTABLISHMENT:

(A) Establishment of Police Commission

The Bad River Tribe hereby establishes an entity to be known as the Bad River Tribal Police Commission whose sole purpose shall be to oversee the conduct and operations of the Bad River Police Force.

(B) Composition of Police Commission

Adopted pursuant to Resolution #10-25-01-174177
Amended pursuant to Resolution #10-20-03-168

Amended pursuant to Resolution #06-24-04-290
Amended pursuant to Resolution #6-24-04-291
Amended pursuant to Resolution #11-9-05-190

The Commission shall consist of seven permanent members. One member shall be from the Ashland County Sheriff, one member from the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Ashland Office, each of whom shall hold permanent seats on the commission and shall be non-voting members of the commission. The five remaining members shall be Bad River Tribal members appointed by the Bad River Tribal Council to serve a five year term. Tribal appointees shall be eligible for reappointment. Members of the police commission may not simultaneously serve as members of the Tribal Council. Tribal member appointees must reside within the exterior boundaries of the Bad River Reservation and be at least twenty-one years of age.

SECTION 1001.6 REMOVAL.

Members of the police commission may be removed by the Tribal Council for serious misconduct. Members shall not be removed except after given a fair and impartial hearing including the opportunity to respond to and rebut specific allegation or allegations of misconduct. Members facing removal shall be afforded due process including the right to present reliable evidence and witnesses, confront adverse witnesses with cross-examination and be represented by counsel at no expense to the Band. An affirmative vote of at least five Tribal Council members after the close of a hearing is required to remove a member of the police commission.

SECTION 1001.7 SUBSTITUTIONS

If a member to the police commission is removed, resigns or is otherwise no longer a member of the commission, he or she shall be replaced by his or her successor in the case of a permanent member, or reasonable substitute at the discretion of the Tribal Council if necessary, or succeeded by a new appointment by the Tribal Council, when applicable, new appointees appointed pursuant to this section shall serve out the original term of their predecessor.

SECTION 1001.8 EXPENSES/STIPENDS

Members of the police commission are authorized reimbursements for costs associated with official police business and shall be paid reasonable stipends. The Tribal Council shall authorize a sufficient amount of funding to meet the budgeted needs of the police commission.

SECTION 1001.9 REPORTS

Adopted pursuant to Resolution #10-25-01-174
Amended pursuant to Resolution #10-20-03-168

Amended pursuant to Resolution #06-24-04-290
Amended pursuant to Resolution #6-24-04-291
Amended pursuant to Resolution #11-9-05-190

The police commission shall be invited to meet with the Tribal Council at least once per year and from time to time as necessary so as to report any information deemed important.

SECTION 1001.10
OVERSIGHT POWERS AND DUTIES

A. Oversight

It shall be the duty of the police commission to meet at least quarterly, and more frequently if necessary so as to perform the following:

1. Review the Bad River Police Chief's quarterly reports to the police commission
2. Review all or selected police reports generated by the Bad River Police Department
3. Review any complaints lodged against the police department and take or direct any necessary action,
4. Direct corrective action to the Bad River Police Chief concerning any deficiencies that are apparent with the police department
5. Ensure that the Bad River Tribal police department is acting in the best interests of the Band and is performing its duties in the most professional and effective manner possible.
6. Review financial status quarterly.

B. Powers

The police commission shall have the following powers:

1. The authority to access the police departments announced or unannounced.
2. The authority to review all department reports, records, financial documents, policies and procedures.
3. The authority to hire, fire and reappoint department personnel.
4. The authority to suspend and discipline all department personnel consistent with the appropriate personnel policies and procedures regulations.
5. The authority to grant pay increases, bonuses and promotions for department personnel.
6. The authority to review all purchases by the departments and have approval authority for those purchases over $1,000.00
7. The authority to review and revise department budget requests.
8. The authority to direct, review and revise law enforcement grant applications for the departments.
9. The authority to review, revise and implement department policies and procedures so long as such policies and procedures are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of any agreement entered into by the Band on behalf of the department.
10. The authority to negotiate any necessary memorandums of agreement and

11. The authority to conduct internal investigations of misconduct or to hire outside experts to do the same.
 12. The authority to grant or deny leave requests, approve or disapprove work time documentation, authorize any form of appropriate payment to department personnel.
 13. The authority to be the final arbitrator in police department personnel issues to include grievances.

SECTION 1001.1 BY-LAWS

The police commission shall operate under the procedures listed below but may establish by-law and procedures for the operation of the organization not inconsistent with those set forth in this section.

1. A quorum shall consist of at least three members.
2. A tape recording of all official meetings shall be made and kept for a period of at least two years.
3. Official Meetings do not have to be noticed nor made public.
4. Official actions shall be carried or defeated by majority vote.
5. Roberts Rules of Order shall be generally followed at all official meetings.
6. Tape recordings of official meetings shall be provided to the Tribal Council upon demand but do not have to be provided to the public. The Tribal Council is empowered to release copies of the tape recordings or transcripts thereof to the public upon reasonable request. Reasonable and prudent attempts must be made to protect the privacy and safety of individuals concerned with the release of a tape recording or transcript requested under this ordinance.
7. A vice-chair shall be selected from within the members to officiate at meetings.
8. A secretary shall be selected from within the members to be responsible for producing and maintaining records of official meetings, minutes and so forth.
9. The Tribal Council shall appoint a chairperson of the Police Commission.
