Summary: The goal of the Ojibwe Immersion Teacher is to build trusting relationships with infants and toddlers 6 weeks to 3 years of age while using the medium of language and culture as a foundation. The teacher will create a learning environment immersed in language and culture while providing a high-quality educational experience instilled with the Anishinaabe seven values of wisdom, love, respect, bravery, honesty, humility, and truth. All instruction is conducted entirely in the language while organizing the curriculum around head start performance standards. The teacher is responsible to teach, supervise and ensure safety measures are taken with children inside and outside the classroom.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following and other duties as assigned by the Supervisor:

Curriculum

1. Create daily lesson plans, and observations, monitor Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP), and anecdotal notes, and translate them into Ojibwemowin.
2. Maintain a routine-daily schedule, and allow for flexibility.
3. Implement age-appropriate materials within the lesson plans as well as cultural activities.
4. Maintain and update classroom environment that encourages development among children.
 - a. An environment that promotes acceptance and respect of gender.
 - b. An environment that is inclusive for children with disabilities.
 - c. An environment that is safe (See Safety Area)

Developmental Assessment

1. Complete individual assessments of all students in the classroom.
2. Understand an Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP).
3. Provide services in accordance with IFSP.

Safety

1. Ensure staff, volunteers, and children wash their hands with soap and running water at appropriate times.
2. Supervision of outdoor and indoor play areas among staff to increase safety for children.
3. Follow established procedures for handling cases of suspected or known child abuse and neglect that comply with applicable Federal, State, and Tribal laws.

Nutrition

1. Allow children to determine the order in which foods are eaten during established meal times and age-appropriate.
2. Encourage children to eat or taste food but are never forced.

Family Engagement

1. Encourage parents to become integrally involved in the development of the program's curriculum.
2. Encourage participation in staff-parent conferences and home visits to discuss their child's development and education.

3. Consult with parents immediately when problems are suspected or identified upon consultation with the Education and Disabilities Manager.
4. Notify parents of opportunities for training.

Training/Personnel development (provided upon hire)

1. First Aid and Tot Saver CPR
2. Shaken Baby training
3. Mandated reporter training
4. CDA training
5. SIDS training
