Job Summary:

Under the supervision of the Bad River Housing Authority Board of Commissioners, the Executive Director is responsible for the day-to-day operation and management of the Bad River Housing Authority. The Authority manages over 190 rental and homeownership properties and administers the construction and rehabilitation program for managed units and qualified private homes within the boundaries of the Bad River Reservation in Northern Wisconsin. The Authority currently employs 17 full-time employees.

The ideal candidate will be a high-caliber person with experience in Indian housing regulations and operations, housing construction, budget development, fiscal management, planning, and supervision of 15 or more employees for a minimum of five years in a responsible management position with a public agency or private organization. Familiarity with the social and economic issues relative to Indian housing as well as knowledge of the community and public organizations is also highly desirable.

Specific position qualification includes:

- Ability to interpret and implement a wide variety of federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to Indian Housing, including NAHASDA; labor and employment; fiscal accounting (GASB 34 AND GAAP); financial, procurement and property management; environmental compliance; construction; and contract Administration.
- Budgeting, accounting, and other financial matters as well as construction matters.
- Must have knowledge and experience in planning and development of staff and programs.
- Must have strong oral and writing skills with experience in making effective oral presentations to public agencies and in writing effective plans, reports, grants, contracts, and correspondence.
- Must possess strong organizational and supervisory skills with the capability of managing 15 or more employees.
- Must possess excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to establish and maintain good relations with staff, tenants, community members, as well as tribal, federal, and state officials.
- Must have strong reasoning ability, with the capability to analyze and solve complex problems in a practical manner.
- Must have strong language skills, with the ability to analyze and interpret business, technical, legal, regulatory, and other professional texts.

- Must be able to perform duties professionally and maintain strict program and tenant confidentiality.
- Must be computer proficient, including Word processing, Excel spreadsheets, and other housing software.
- Must possess a valid Wisconsin driver's license and access to an insured vehicle.
- Must be able to travel often for training and other job-related duties.
- Must be bondable and pass a background check.

Education Requirements:
