2023 Tribal Dipnetting

Dip netting at Kakagon/Goslin Bridges (Porta-potty will be provided at both locations)

- Youth WILL BE ALLOWED to participate in dip netting this year but must adhere to the requirements.
- The Following are requirements that need to be met in order to participate in dip netting this year.
 1. Dip netters will only lift their own net. (Cannot hop from net to net)
 2. All youth MUST be accompanied by their guardian. (No exceptions)
 3. Utilize the hand-washing stations and hand sanitizer.
 4. Adhere to Warden and Fisheries staff requests for creeling as there will be changes to the normal protocol.
 5. All nets must be attended. No saving spots or leaving nets unattended. (If this occurs nets will be pulled and placed off to the side.)
 6. No alcohol or drugs will be allowed on any of the bridges. Failure to adhere will result in being asked to leave the bridge.

Lack of adhering to the posted requirements may result in the bridge being closed and further restrictions being imposed for the following days of the fishing season.
