COMPLIANCE PLAN RESPONSIBILITIES

Pursuant to section 2.0: Every employer of two or more employees and every contractor or subcontractor obtaining a contract of $10,000 or more shall submit an acceptable Compliance Plan on how they will meet their obligations and responsibilities under the Tribal Employment Rights Policy before commencing work on the Reservation.

Section 1, Paragraph 1.1, Coverage and scope:

1. Coverage: It is understood by all parties that the intent of the Tribal Employment Rights Policy is to secure a Local Indian Preference workforce. Therefore all skill or craft job positions, that require the use of manual labor or the use of hand tools, will be filled by qualified Local Indian Preference applicants. No Non-Indian Preference employee will be used on the project, except where cleared through the Tribal Employment Rights Director before start-up operations begin.
 - a. Clearance shall be granted for Non-Indian Preference personnel if:
 1. There isn't any qualified Indian Preference applicant available at time of request.
 2. Key personnel and/or core crew employees will be used on the project as defined here within.
 - b. Opportunities for supervisory personnel shall be filled with qualified Local Indian Preference applicants where practical.
2. Hiring: If qualified and available 100% of the work force shall be Local Indian Preference applicants for the duration of the project.(Attachments #1 and #7)
3. Payroll hours worked: At no time shall the Indian Preference work force hours fall below the percentage of Indian Preference workers on the payroll and/or a minimum of 50%.
4. Training programs: Training Programs will be initiated for craft or skill jobs if the Indian Preference workforce hours, for each craft or skill that falls below the 50% minimum. Wages for Training Position shall not be less than 50% of Journeyman pay or minimum wage laws.
 - a. Bureau of Apprenticeship Training Program requirements shall be applicable where practical.

Paragraph 1.2 Contractors and Subcontractors:

1. All Indian Preference requirements contained in the Policy shall be binding on any and all contractors and subcontractors regardless of tier, and shall be deemed part of all contract or subcontract specifications let and/or signatory documents.
2. The employer agrees to accept the initial and primary responsibility for insuring all contractors and subcontractors comply with these requirements.

Paragraph 1.3 Minimum Numerical Goals and Timetables for Indian Employment:

Employer Init. _____ Date _____ TERO Init. _____ Date _____

1. The employer agrees to hire a minimum percentage or number of Indian Preference employees according to the goals established for each craft, skill, job classification, etc., used by the employer and shall include Administrative, Supervisory and Professional categories. (Attachment #7)
2. These percentage(s) and man-hours shall be reviewed by the Personnel Office annually and shall be revised as necessary to reflect the number of Indian Preference applicants available or changes in the employer hiring plans.
3. The employer agrees to submit a monthly report to the Personnel Office indicating how he/she is meeting the Indian Preference Goals, all persons hired or discharged during the month, the positions involved, and any of the information required by the Office and/or Director.

Paragraph 1.4 Training:

1. Training Programs will be developed and initiated in all various Job Classifications used by the employer where a minimum of 50% Indian Employee Ratio are not used in each building trades craft or skill, but shall include administrative, supervisory and professional categories, where practical.
2. Minimum Local Indian Preference Trainees in each craft or skill shall be maintained through ratios established by the Federal Department of Labor, Bureau of Apprenticeship standards where Federal Laws require Training Programs approved by the Federal Department of Labor for the duration of the project.
3. All apprentice wage rates shall not be less than laborer wage rates used on a project.

Paragraph 1.5 Job Qualifications and Personnel Requirements:

1. Each Employer is prohibited from using Job Qualifications criteria or personnel requirements which bar Indian Preference from employment, unless such criteria or requirements are required and listed in the directory of Occupation Titles under Bona fide Occupational Qualifications (BFOQ) and are required by business necessity.
 - a. Each Employer will complete an Employment Request form for all personnel used on the project. Only Bona Fide Occupational Qualifications (BFOQ) will be recognized by the Personnel Office as qualifications for business necessity required by the employer.
 - b. Employers who employ more than two employees may designate key personnel who are regular permanent employees in a supervisory or other key position(s). But only the first and thereafter every seventh employee will be employed as key personnel or core crew by an employer (attachment #1). All other positions shall be filled with qualified Indian Preference applicants. If qualified Indian Preference applicants cannot be obtained then Indian Preference Training Requirements may be initiated along with a clearance for Non-Indian Preference Personnel.
 - c. At no time shall core crew and/or key personnel displace Indian Preference Employee(s) and /or potential Indian Preference Employee(s) by performing
